To the class of 1996---

Congratulations to each of you on the attainment of this important milestone in your life! We welcome you to the family of Fenway alumnae, as productive and responsible citizens of an ever-changing world. Through all the joys, frustrations and triumphs, we have worked together, and you have overcome. We are proud of what you have attained, and wish you every future success and happiness.

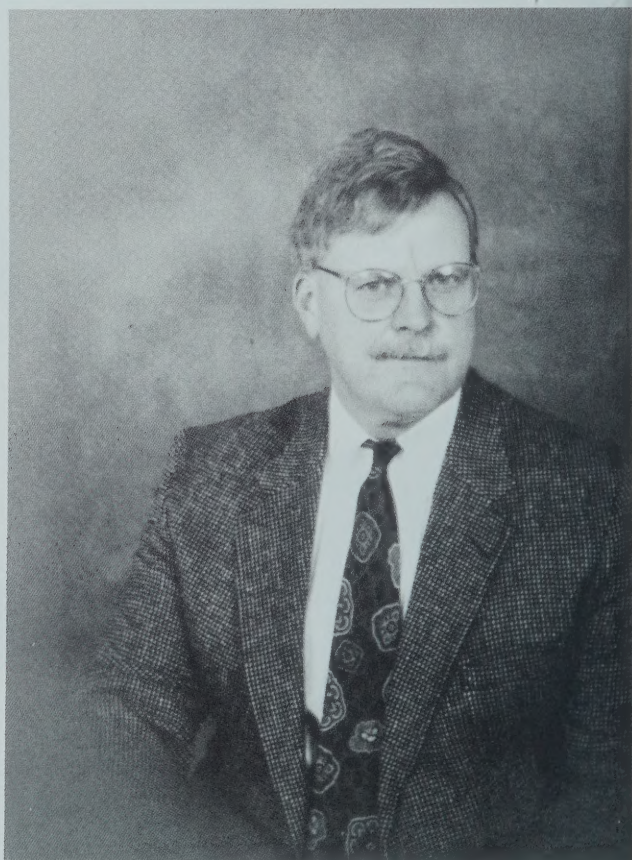

Larry Myatt
Co-Director

Dear Fenway Seniors,

The class of 1996 is a very special one to me. You represent a lot of "firsts" here at Fenway. You are the first class to ever include freshmen! You are the first class that is graduating by portfolios and exhibitions! You are the first class to fully participate in internships and senior projects!

In many ways, you have been our teachers. You have helped us shape this school. You have tried hard to be patient, flexible and hard working. You have adapted as best you could to all the changes. I respect your efforts. I respect your ability to keep trying and to not give up when things seemed overwhelming. These are wonderful qualities. These are qualities that make me proud of each and everyone of you. I feel honored to have worked with you and I wish you all the best in years to come. Please stay in touch with your Fenway family.

Best of luck,
Ms. Nathan

SAT prayer

by: Marlon Carey 11-4-95

Now I sit down to my SATs I pray the lord my sanity keep

The damage is done
Now I cannot leave the room I am staring into space and imagining my doom

I implore you Lord to use all power to cause me to sit and think for three hours

Lord if you help me to do very well I swear and I promise no more lies I will tell

Bring back the Algebra
I thought I wouldn't need And keep my eyes open and help me to breathe

And if I do you can send me where it's hot on second thought... maybe you'd better not.
Amen

Lord take my hands and help me resist the urge to drop the pencil and break something with my fist

Lord here I go I'm already frustrated Help me to focus and to stay motivated

This one test so important and critical if I leave here alive it would be a miracle

Help me Lord to remember my name For if I messed that up it would be quite a shame

My Friend

My only true friend he doesn't have a name To some people my friend is only a game my friend cannot see 'cuz he doesn't have a face So he can never say that I'm a disgrace

He has the power to free me from hurt
He has the power to put me in the dirt
He has the power to ease my mind
He has the power to leave me behind

DEATH OF THREE TIMES

It's hard to understand why death really occurs I know how hard it is to accept I've been through it three times...

The first time was horrible-we were very close.
He was my world.
I could talk to him about anything-He was so easy to get along with.
And he was my best friend in the whole world.

Death happens for certain reasons and those reason I have yet to find out.
People will never understand the point of death-it's just there.

The second time wasn't so bad Although he was family
I didn't know him all that well
He was old but very intelligent He was a good person with a good heart.

Death is like snow: you see it when it's there but eventually it goes away-just like people

The third was the word-it was a huge surprise It took the life of someone who knew what it was like to live the hard life She was very strong and very well kept She will be missed by all who loved her and all who knew her.

To put death simply it happens to everyone no matter how good or bad you are Death is a part of life and life is a part of you.

by: Max Glenn

The silence, it's so deep and vast I forget for a moment about The Darkness
I am completely engulfed
I can't remember The Light
I can't remember Hope I once believed in something It let me down
I cherished it and gave it my fullest It dropped me
I have nothing and all I ever owned My mind is black and empty
My Heart is till as a black obsidian
The Blood in my veins has turned to stone I wait for an answer
I've been waiting for eternity

The Street by Yuisa Gimeno

She once lived in peace, a world all her own full of life and not thinning trees Where hatred and injustice was unknown

Open windows and unlocking gates, spilling crying babies Sulking sidewalks embrace tired feet, as playful children go home with sweat from the heat Crowded houses ignore the setting sun, Decaying spirits and forgotten memories of fun

Scattered trash replaces hopes of starting over People walk on, the new rosebud goes unnoticed The loudness of foreign words grips the air
People walk on,
they don't care

Her heart feels the wrath of tainted love, Bundled up tight as a glove frozen in time like a picture

Still her happiness comes and goes like each day, Like mothers who suffer and smile get up in the morning and pray A dreamer, a survivor no one knows all the secrets she kept inside her

For all the days of silent cries she stared at her dreams as if blank as the sky Still, they walked on as the days went by She watches with patience, the changes taking over her Silent screams, heavy feet Children with fear never to return.
